The Coleraine Historical Society, Inc.

We learn from the past
to live in the present and build for the future

The Coleraine Historical Society, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization

Founded in 1964,

the Coleraine Historical Society, Inc. is a non-profit organization supported by membership and donations.

The Purpose of the Coleraine Historical Society is to acquire and preserve historical knowledge, materials and artifacts of Colerain Township, OH.

Over the years, Society members have helped people research family history, locate family in Township cemeteries, rescued abandoned historic buildings, and restored objects of historic interest – such as the Giles Richards Watering Trough on Old Colerain Ave.; the Toll House/Post Office and Flood Pole now at Heritage Park.

The Pageant

The Coleraine Historical Society bimonthly newsletter is titled "The Pageant"

Emailed to members, the newsletter contains the Society's business information, calendar of events, announcements, articles and pictures of historical interest.

Come to a Meeting to find out why there is an "e" on the Coleraine Historical Society name.
