

In Memoriam for our Member who has Passed

Like branches on a Tree, we all grow in different directions; but our roots keep us all together.

Obituary

ELODIE CLARE WEINSHENKER (1930 - 2013) passed away peacefully at home on Monday, June 10, 2013 following complications from pancreatic cancer. Clare was born in Hamilton Bermuda, graduated from Bermuda High School and from the University of Edinburgh (Scotland). She led a life of service to her family, friends and community and worked at many volunteer organizations, most recently the Colerain Historical Society and AARP Tax Preparation. She is survived and will be missed by her husband Eugene; sons David, Daniel and Don; daughter-in-law Erika; grandson, Stephen; and brothers John and Chris Crisson.
